

Facilitator - Part Time Partner Assault Response (PAR) Program

The PAR program provides education and counselling services to individuals convicted or found guilty of a criminal offence against a current or former partner, as well as information and support to the victims of these offences. The program has two primary goals: to enhance safety and to increase offender accountability.

The function of this position is to facilitate group sessions for individuals convicted of domestic violence offences. This position reports to the Program Manager.

Applications will be reviewed upon receipt. Only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

- To provide domestic violence group facilitation to clients in the PAR Program
- Co-facilitate daytime and evening program sessions
- To prepare materials for group sessions
- To complete all required reports
- Liaise with community partner agencies
- Adhere to the directives of The Ministry of The Attorney General program standards

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Post-secondary degree in relevant Human Services field (Master's Level preferred)
- Experience facilitating groups for challenging clients
- Attend staff meetings
- Knowledge regarding partner abuse, child abuse, and the dynamics of violence and abuse
- Able to articulate an analysis of domestic violence as it relates to gender roles, socialization, the dynamics of power and control and the effects of abuse on woman and children
- Ability to speak more than one language is an asset

- Knowledge of crisis intervention techniques
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office programs]

Please note: The John Howard Society of York Region is an equal opportunity employer. Our organization is always looking for talented and skilled individuals to join our team. We are building a workforce which is representative of the York Region community and our programs and policies are designed to foster diversity and inclusion.

To Apply:

Interested applicants are encouraged to submit a resume and covering letter via charity village by Friday, September 16th, 2016.