

The John Howard Society Sarnia Lambton is a not-for-profit, charitable organization providing a broad range of evidence-based and outcome-driven community services in Sarnia-Lambton. Our organization has a strong history of helping individuals and families who are at risk of, or who have come into conflict with the law. Our work includes the provision of prevention and intervention services as well as advocacy, public education, and community partnerships. Our diverse client group includes youth and adults, males and females, from a wide cross section of social, cultural, and ethnic backgrounds represented in our community.

Volunteers

John Howard Society Sarnia Lambton seeks adult residents of the Sarnia-Lambton area, with a passion for maintaining healthy communities through crime prevention. As a volunteer for the John Howard Society Sarnia Lambton, you will gain valuable experiences and a sense of satisfaction that you have made a difference in your community. By offering your time and services as a volunteer, you will not only be helping the individuals we work with, but also benefiting your community and yourself.

The time commitment and roles volunteers can hold vary, but can include:

- Reception support
- Intake support
- Housekeeping, yard maintenance
- Driver
- Life Skills Program Assistant
- Reintegration Program Assistant
- Bail Supervisor Assistant
- Youth Program Assistant
- Community Service Program Assistant
- Group Facilitation Assistant
- Assist with community education materials and presentations

Expressions of interest in the form of a cover letter and resume can be directed to Christine LeDrew, Executive Director, at cl drew@johnhowardsarnia.com. Please have "Volunteer" in the subject line.

Applicants cannot be in a conflict of interest with respect to a relationship with agency personnel or funders and may be willing to undergo a criminal records check depending on the volunteer role.

If you have a disability and require support during the selection process, you are encouraged to identify your needs if you are selected for an interview.
