

Join the Board of Directors of the John Howard Society of Kingston and District!

John Howard Society of Kingston and Districts (JHSK) is a community based professional non-profit charitable organization with the mandate to address the root causes of crime.

The John Howard Society of Kingston and District is currently looking for passionate individuals to join our Board of Directors and with a passion for maintaining healthy communities through crime prevention to serve as a director. You will have demonstrated leadership skills and be committed to partnering with the rest of the Board of Directors and the Executive Director to provide excellence in oversight and strategic leadership. You have skills and expertise in the areas of: finance and accounting, fundraising, marketing, criminology, housing development, as well as a connection to community resources.

John Howard Society of Kingston and District operates on a policy governance model. All Board Members participate in monthly board meetings as well as committee work, with an expected time commitment of between 4 - 5 hours per month.

The position of Director typically requires 4 - 5 hours per month and entails:

- Attending Board meetings held in the evening on the fourth Wednesday of each month from January through May & September through November;
- Attending the Annual General Meeting/Appreciation Event & Board meeting in June; and
- Participating in Board Committee meetings/teleconference calls as needed.

The John Howard Society of Kingston & District is an Equal Opportunity organization; we are committed to providing an accessible workplace. Accessibility accommodations are available for all parts of the recruitment and selection process.

Please send your CV and Cover Letter to recruitment@johnhowardkingston.ca.