

VOLUNTER JOB POSTING

Fund Development Committee Member

The John Howard Society of Waterloo-Wellington is a community-based, non-profit, charitable organization operating in the area since 1950. Our mandate is to address the root causes of crime and to support the creation and maintenance of healthy communities. More information about JHSWW programs and services can be found at www.waterloo.johnhoward.on.ca

The JHSWW is looking for community-focused individuals who are interested in helping the agency meet its strategic fund development goals. Reporting to the Board of Directors, this new Fund Development Committee will be responsible for creating, monitoring and evaluating the agency's yearly fund development initiatives.

The JHSWW is seeking volunteer committee members who have knowledge in business, entrepreneurship, communications, media, not-for-profit and/or community development. Your experience and skills will contribute to creating new strategies that will generate opportunities to increase the agency's fundraising revenues. Your extensive community connections will help to identify and engage support for the agency's individual and corporate giving programs. As part of this innovative committee, you will provide guidance to donor stewardship activities and best practices in fundraising.

Individuals should have a working knowledge of the charitable sector and experience in fundraising. Other attributes include the ability to work and communicate effectively as a part of the fund development team. You will have the willingness to commit the necessary time to participate in committee meetings and fundraising activities. Members are appointed annually with a one-year renewable term. The committee will meet five to six times per year.

For more information about the Fund Development Committee and its Terms of Reference, please contact Heather Glenister, Development Manager at 519. 497.1475 or by e-mail to heatherglenister@waterloo.johnhoward.on.ca. Interested individuals are invited to send a CV and cover letter via email to the above e-mail address. The deadline for consideration is Monday July 6th. We thank individuals for their interest in the JHSWW.
