

The John Howard Society Sarnia Lambton is a not-for-profit, charitable organization providing a broad range of evidence-based and outcome-driven community services in Sarnia-Lambton. Our organization has a strong history of helping individuals and families who are at risk of, or who have come into conflict with the law. Our work includes the provision of prevention and intervention services as well as advocacy, public education, and community partnerships. Our diverse client group includes youth and adults, males and females, from a wide cross section of social, cultural, and ethnic backgrounds represented in our community.

Board of Director Positions

John Howard Society Sarnia Lambton seeks adult residents of the Sarnia-Lambton area, with a passion for maintaining healthy communities through crime prevention. You will have demonstrated leadership skills and be committed to partnering with the Board and Executive Director to provide excellence in oversight and strategic leadership. You have a reputation for sound judgment and open mindedness, and a demonstrated capacity for thoughtful group decision-making. At this time the Board is especially interested in recruiting persons with legal and finance expertise.

The time commitment is approximately 3 hours per month during the spring, fall, and winter months. Meetings are held at our office in Sarnia. Board members are unpaid volunteers.

Expressions of interest in the form of a cover letter and brief resume can be directed to Christine LeDrew, Executive Director, at cl drew@johnhowardsarnia.com. Please indicate "Board of Directors" in the subject line.

Applicants cannot be in a conflict of interest with respect to a relationship with agency personnel or funders and must be willing to undergo a criminal records check.

If you have a disability and require support during the selection process, you are encouraged to identify your needs if you are selected for an interview.
