

ABOUT OUR RECORD SUSPENSION PROGRAM

Our Record Suspension Program assists individuals in applying for a record suspension to the Parole Board of Canada.

Our Program supports individuals in determining eligibility, corresponding with court house, police, and Parole Board of Canada staff, obtaining all necessary paperwork and forms, and putting together the entire application package. Staff will help to guide clients through the entirety of the process from start to finish.

This is a pay for service program. Please be advised that the John Howard Society of Simcoe & Muskoka charges a $250 service fee. Applicants will also be responsible for covering the additional costs associated with the application process, including fees for obtaining fingerprints, local police record checks, and the Parole Board of Canada application fee.

RECORD SUSPENSION PROGRAM

WHAT IS A RECORD SUSPENSION?

A Record Suspension (formerly known as a Pardon) is an order that keeps a persons criminal record separate and apart from other criminal records.

This means that an individuals convictions will not be shown on a criminal record check. A Record Suspension effectively removes all information about an individuals convictions from the Canadian Police Information Centre (CPIC) database. A Record Suspension does not erase a persons criminal record, rather, it is kept separate from other criminal records.

A Record Suspension allows individuals who have made positive life changes since their convictions to be freed from the stigma associated with having a criminal record. A Record Suspension can allow folks to do things such as find employment, volunteer, travel, etc. without fear of their criminal record holding them back.
